Expanding Participation of Underrepresented Groups in Mathematics and Statistics: The Importance of Academic Innovation & Institutional Culture Change

Dr. Freeman Hrabowski, President of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC), chaired the National Academies' committee that produced the 2011 report, "Expanding Underrepresented Minority Participation: America's Science and Technology Talent at the Crossroads." He will discuss the results of the report and focus on the innovative strategies used by his university in educating students both from underrepresented groups and from around the world in mathematics, statistics, and other scientific and technical fields. Special attention will be given to innovative initiatives involving course redesign, inclusive excellence, and institutional culture change.
